

WHA PHYSICIAN

QUALITY ACADEMY — 2017 —

Who Should Attend

The WHA Physician Quality Academy is intended for physicians and advanced practice providers who have an assigned role related to quality measurement and improvement within a WHA member organization.

Continuing Medical Education

These educational activities are jointly provided by AXIS Medical Education and the Wisconsin Hospital Association.

Accreditation Statement

This activity is planned and implemented by AXIS Medical Education and the Wisconsin Hospital Association. AXIS Medical Education is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC) to provide continuing education for the health care team.

Credit Designation for Physicians

AXIS Medical Education designates this live activity for a maximum of 10 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

MAY 10 & JULY 21

- OR -

SEPTEMBER 29 & NOVEMBER 3

Glacier Canyon Lodge at The Wilderness Resort

45 Hillman Road, Wisconsin Dells, WI 53965

Program Description

Physicians are often assigned a role with the quality department, committee or asked to lead a quality improvement project. A basic knowledge about quality improvement tools and principles can increase the likelihood that physicians will be more successful in and comfortable with their leadership role.

The WHA Physician Quality Academy will provide training and resources necessary for physicians in these quality improvement-related roles. Participants in the Academy will attend two non-consecutive days of in-person training and have access to supporting resources provided by WHA. Participants are committing to and are expected to attend both days of their enrolled session.

Learning Objectives

At the end of the Academy, each participant will be able to:

- Design and conduct a quality improvement project using the Plan-Do-Study-Act (PDSA) model for improvement
- Interpret data associated with a quality improvement project
- Facilitate physician colleague engagement in quality improvement and measurement
- Describe the relationship between hospital quality requirements, medical staff functions and the role of the medical staff

About the Presenters

Kelly Court

Kelly Court, BSMT, MBA, is the chief quality officer for the Wisconsin Hospital Association, a role she has held since 2010. In this role, she provides executive leadership of a variety of health care quality improvement efforts, including the CMS Partnership for Patients

Hospital Improvement Innovation Network (HIIN), CMS Hospital Engagement Network (HEN), Aligning Forces for Quality, and WHA CheckPoint public reporting of quality measures website. Court is a recognized expert on state and national advocacy issues related to quality and patient safety. In 2014, she was the co-chair of the Rural Health Committee at the National Quality Forum. Court holds a Bachelor of Science degree in medical technology and a master's degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire.

Bobby Redwood, MD

Bobby Redwood MD, MPH is a graduate of the Rush University School of Medicine in Chicago (2011) and the University of Wisconsin Emergency Medicine and Preventive Residencies (2014, 2016). He works full time as an emergency and preventive medicine physician at Divine Savior Hospital in Portage, Wisconsin, and is chair of the hospital's antimicrobial stewardship committee. Dr. Redwood also teaches resident physicians and publishes research as a clinical adjunct professor for the UW Department of Family Medicine. Recent publications include, "Severe Sepsis Care in the Emergency Department" (2016) and "Elderly Man with Dark Urine" (2015). Outside of work, he serves as the president of the Wisconsin Chapter of the American College of Emergency Physicians.

Beth Dibbert

Beth Dibbert, CPHQ is the quality director for the Wisconsin Hospital Association. Her responsibilities include assisting member hospitals with quality improvement and measurement. Dibbert is a Certified Professional in Healthcare Quality (CPHQ) with more than 35 years of health care experience in a variety of roles and settings. She has served on several state and national task forces for clinical quality and patient safety, including serving on The Joint Commission's technical advisory panel for the creation of a set of critical access hospital-centric quality measures, as well as co-authoring with the Wisconsin Office of Rural Health a set of meaningful use manuals that identify the challenges of electronic reporting. Prior to joining WHA, she served as quality services senior manager for the Rural Wisconsin Health Cooperative.
