

Vol. 66, Issue 15

Thursday, April 14, 2022

Registration Now Open for WHA 2022 Physician Leadership Development Conference

WHA's annual Physician Leadership Development Conference offers an opportunity for physicians practicing in Wisconsin hospitals and health systems to gain CME-qualifying education focused on leadership skill development.

This year's event returns to an in-person format, increasing opportunities for face-to-face networking among participants.

WHA 2022 Physician Leadership Development Conference

June 16-17, 2022

KI Convention Center, Green Bay

This conference is geared toward physician leaders with both clinical and management interests whose responsibilities include problem solving, leadership of clinical colleagues and managing needed change in a rapidly evolving health care environment.

Learn more about the conference's agenda and featured speakers and register on the event's webpage.

For questions about the WHA 2022 Physician Leadership Development Conference or any WHA education opportunity, email education@wha.org.