

Workforce Briefing Provides In-Depth Review of 2023 WHA Workforce Report

WHA virtual event sets the stage for this fall's Workforce Forum

The WHA 2023 Wisconsin Health Care Workforce Report was released on March 28, 2023, and the next day 149 health care leaders joined WHA Senior Vice President of Workforce and Clinical Practice Ann Zenk at WHA's second annual Workforce Virtual Forum.

Zenk provided an hour-long briefing highlighting WHA Information Center workforce data, state and national trends and WHA's recommendations for actions health care leaders, state policymakers and other stakeholders can take together to overcome the challenges confronting health care and the health care workforce.

The WHA Workforce Virtual Forum sets the stage for the second annual WHA Health Care Workforce Forum to be held Sept. 13, 2023 in Madison. Save the date for the in-person forum now. Registration will open soon. A recorded version of the 2023 WHA Workforce Virtual Forum is available to WHA members in the WHA On-demand Learning Center.

Contact Ann Zenk with questions about the workforce forums, the annual workforce report or any other workforce issues.

Other Articles in this Issue

- Less Than Two Weeks Until Advocacy Day; Registration, Webinar and Legislative Visits Encouraged
- Workforce Briefing Provides In-Depth Review of 2023 WHA Workforce Report
- WHA 2023 Salary Survey Results Now Available to Survey Participants
- DSPS Military Pathways Grant Program Open for Applications
- Quality Improvement Poster Showcase in the Capitol Rotunda on April 18
- GUEST COLUMN: More Nurses Needed to Meet Health Care Challenges
- Seeking Input from WHA's Valued Hospital Leaders – WHA Workforce Well-Being Survey Deadline April 21
- Substance Use Disorders Management Boot Camp - Register now!
- Peer Recovery Support Services Webinar for Clinicians – Monday April 17, 2023
- Monthly Provider Office Hours for Addictive Disorders