Caring for Wisconsin's Caregivers Well-Being First Champion Challenge for Credentialing Kickoff

On Jan. 14, 2026, WHA will launch the Credentialing Challenge, a statewide effort to ensure credentialing applications are free from stigmatizing language and promote mental health support for health care workers. Using the Dr. Lorna Breen Foundation Toolkit, you can learn how to audit and update documents, eliminate barriers to care and foster a culture of safety and well-being. This session provides step-by-step guidance, actionable deliverables and practical tips to position your organization as a Well-Being First Champion.

When: January 14, 2026 | 12 - 1:00 p.m.
