

Stuessy Named WHA Education Coordinator

Maria Stuessy

WHA is happy to announce that Maria Stuessy has accepted the position of education coordinator effective Nov. 1.

Maria started with WHA in 2020 in the role of front desk receptionist. In this role, she assisted the education department with many projects and activities. This partnership has increased significantly over the past year. Maria is a natural fit for the position and brings with her a strong work ethic, professionalism and an attention to detail that the role requires.
